Our needs as a city are many. Issues of affordable housing, economic inequalities, and social injustices feel more pressing than ever. YWCA Columbus seeks to create solutions and move into a future where all people thrive. It starts with us.
YWCA COLUMBUS IS DEDICATED TO DIGNITY BY...

YOUR YWCA creates a community of safety, support, and stability, helping those who’ve suffered setbacks preserve their sense of self-worth without fear or deprivation. By connecting our resources and partners, women and their families have access to housing, education, and employment.

1,518 individuals served
63% had successful housing outcomes
110,897 total meals served (316 meals/day)
127 individuals obtained new jobs

EDUCATING & EMPOWERING THE NEXT GENERATION

YOUR YWCA acts as a beacon for good in our community so that with each new generation, we’re all braver, wiser, and kinder. By fostering advocacy, celebrating successes, and educating and guiding young people, we can create the next wave of social change agents.

YWCA KIDS PLACE: Affordable, dependable and high-quality year-round child care
LEADERSHIP FOR SOCIAL CHANGE & BRIGHT FUTURES PROGRAMS: Leadership training for the change-makers of tomorrow

YOUR YWCA confronts uncomfortable truths about prejudice and poverty—because the only way to rise above our challenges is to go through them. By initiating dialogues, convening allies to share resources and insights, and bringing bias to light, we can see each other’s values more clearly.
